past year. Her goals are set on reaching out to learn more in this world and life, plus to be able to impart much of the goodness shown to her, unto others. (In my mind she truly is a sweet and lovely personality whom I take time to praise.) She spoke of wanting members of her family to attend Tiffany's-12 Social Club-Tyro Modeling Class. Hats Off To The Hemphill Family . . .

Our New Biz'ness Of The Week: Dear Community, since the take over of DOT's Cleaners, 415 W. Jackson Ave., my partner Bob Kofol and I (Louigi Lopesto) have added 4 new employees who I feel are able to carry on with the cleaning business in the utmost professional manner. My many fine customers and the business people in the community have been very good and my partner Bob and I wish to say a good THANK YOU and May We Go Right On Giving You Top-notch services in cleaning your clothing. (Louigi has lived in Vegas for some 1960-til now and days to come). My employees and friends: Shirley McDowell, Jean Mason, Rochelle Newman, Carl Jamerson, George Blanks, and Mike Di Maggio invite each and all to come in and let us prove to you that we welcome your patronage . . . Welcome to the community Bob and Louigi . . .

Our Club Lounge of The Week: THE PLACE! 1236 Blankenship (where McArthur some times relaxes and slips away to) is truly The Place to get into a mellow mood or shoot a game of pool. It's located way'a'ways from my fav-o-rite beat Jackson Street . . . but that makes it nice and snug to hug-up to some little thang or big one and easy on down the road to a cozy spot where you can groove to sweet soul sound from juke/n/box. Hank — the owner awaits you/you/andME to come out and enjoy the fun.n.tun from mix-O-ologist-etts GLENDA and DEBRA . . . Who be opening each and every day come 3pm until. Hank, ME is coming by to sip on sum'thang and chat wit-U and do a mo'in'deep interview and article on you . . . Every since I came to town in 76 you have been a fine and rightly bix'ness man on the move who keeps it in the right frame of doing thangs HANK's WAY . . . which is COOL and saying so much when others have moved on. O.K. Hank sho'nuf done it his'a-way!

Our Working Man of The Week: Hard at his job keeping thangs clean and looking nice in The New Town Tavern is non-other than Mr. David Lee Bolden! Eye Seeded him polishing the glass doors so as to make them Eye-catching to any passer-by. Walk right in and ENJOY YOURSELF TO TUN/GAME/FOOD/n/FUN . . . U just might take home a trunk full-o-coins. Feel-free to go on a TOWN TAVERN SPREE . . . Say hello to David (Dave) Bolden for ME . . .

Our Man About Town Of The Week is None Other Than: The B.T. Himself in a cool manner he checks out the varied haponings along Jackson Street to see if every tub is on its own bottom . . . NOW HOW' Bout That for doing a Checking-out the flow of folks who be making Jackson Street they beat even in all this Hum-I-Did-I-ty we be having to hustle/n/Bustle these mean streets in . . .

More power to the working man who is out of WORK! Help Some one else even if it is in a small way . . . HELP YOUR BROTHER TO STAY ALIVE! STAY ALIVE! STAY ALIVE! - monamodi-82 need. Let us keep on giving. PLEASE!

On Lake Mead Blvd. what used to be 7-Eleven Store is now open and called Stop-N-Shop. So go in, stop and shop for what you want.

A thought or two: Even though it is raining, I don't wish it would/that would be like saying/I think it shouldn't, I would rather be out playing.

Show love and care — Regina S.
