Changes come to the W.S.O.T. but in what direction and for what folks . . . I invite everyone who can read to read "Spirits Rebellious" — by Kahlil Gibran and do pay close attention to pages 90-97 and let your soul be feed knowledge of what was/is/&/coming to bear on this people who dwell in the land of dark days & nites even with the lights winking and blinking . . .

The BLACK RIVER is flowing in a tiny trickle back into the black community . . . What is The Black River and what the MASTER-PLAN is many folks be just a wondering about it . . . HAVE U SEEN IT? I have and it sho'nuff looks glooming . . . Our word for the week is: Atrocious — Like we live in a black community full of it . . . Have you had a cup full yet? Huh! . . .

Mus'tell U Miss June — who was injured in a car accident a few ago is seen by me and others hoppy-long on a crutch now-a-days — Glad to see it like that . . .

I c'd Willie "the cannon" Shannon git'ting he Z-28 cleaned up for whatever. He wuz at the CAR WASH on E St & JACKSON and said on Sept. 28th he wuz Going into the ring up in Atlantic Ciddy. A K.O. + $$$$ awaits him

STATE PLATE-O-Tha WEEK: WE C U2. STORE FOR SHOPPING-O-tha Week: Sykes Community Store on D St & Monroe. Enjoy the service of swiftness from SWEETS, Leroy, Morris Perkins — the butcher mans with your cooking meats for the frying pans . . . Leroy said You can broil it or You can bake it/He cut and sells it. You take it . . . Then there is lovely Ann Nichols on the cashier line ready to handle your purchase in a hurry for You . . .

I stop by The Port Tack for a lovely lunch with a lovely Lady — Thank you. It was touching . . . And, and a nice thing to come home to from a quickie vacation! . . .

Had to check out SOUL BODY & PAINT SHOP to See Brothers JOE & HARLEE MILLER. Like all the time they are making little cars look good and new like a car driver wants the ride to be looking as he/she grooves on a nite to "CLUB ROUGE" . . . nite club on Bonanza Rd.

Speaking of Bonanzaaaa: The P.O. (post office) has (not probation officer) 3 super sharp (need no razor) ladies who will keep you waiting in line just to see how sharp they be working on the folks A'HEAD OF YOU (smile cause the cam-O-ra is on you ladies): J. Rapley/G-L-O-R-I-A and C. Jackson (no kin to me!) WATCH OUT FOR THE MAIL/or/THE BULL! . . .

Our Student-O-tha Week: Mr Richard 'Morris' LaMar Riley who is off to Potterville, California Jr. College (now 2 weeks) He states: "I find life away from home is A-alright. But I sure do miss MOM's Good Home Cooking and Fussing (smiles) RIGHT-On Morris! Get the

The Black People In Our Community . .

By: Regina Straughter

Black people of our community, school is back in session and I am moving to improve my world's outlook on life and help others if at all needed. I hope your children are finding the new school term "one to reach-out" and touch with deep shades of gladness . . .

Black people I did have the pleasure of interviewing one of my new-found friends, the lovely Miss Tanya Coleman. I asked her: "How and what does she feel about going to a Junior High School for three years?" Her answer to me was: "Since the School District has cut back in the school sports activities I, for one, don't think it fair to let the High School students enjoy having the pleasure of engagement in sports activities."

"Regina, last year I played basketball, softball, and volleyball all to much enjoyment, my coaches told me that I am coming along great in the art of field sports and
