knockouts.

Boza-Edwards, the WBC 130-pound champ from March until August of 1981 and now that organization's No. 1 contender, has a 36-3 record with 28 knockouts. Boza-Edwards also lives in Las Vegas. Dickson, the former North American Boxing Federation junior lightweight champion, has a 17-4-1 record with seven knockouts.

Four 10-round bouts, one featuring Las Vegas favorite Freddie Roach in his junior lightweight debut and another spotlighting super bantamweight sensation Lenny Valdez, are the main attractions Thursday, Sept. 23, on the monthly ESPN professional boxing cards at the Showboat Hotel, Casino, Country Club and Bowling Center.

This is only the second time in recent years that four 10-round fights have been presented on a non-world title card.

Matchmaker Mel Greb has Roach going against Danny Cruz and Valdez taking on Martine Hernandez.

Two six-round preliminary bouts also are scheduled, both featuring undefeated fighters; Las Vegas lightweight Ramon Estrada and junior middleweight Jose Luis Santana.

The six-bout, 52-round card, promoted by Bob Arum's Top Rank, Inc., in association with the Showboat Hotel, begins at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Showboat Sports Pavilion. Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Tickets, priced at only $15 for ringside reserved and $10 for general admission are on sale daily at the Showboat Sports Pavilion Ticket Office or they can be purchased at the door Thursday night.

Cottrell, from Denver, and Cerda, from Pomona, Calif., have a legitimate grudge match. The two battled to an unusual 10-round draw when they met July 29 at the Showboat.

The fight was close for nine and one-half rounds, but then Cottrell began hammering Cerda, finally knocking him through the ropes, over the press table and onto the floor. A fighter has 20 seconds in which to get back into the ring, but Cerda didn't come close to making it.

Golf Tourney Set For Tropicana

A charitable golf tournament will be held at the Tropicana Country Club on Oct. 17 to benefit the Hearing Impaired Program of the Clark County School District.

The tournament, the first annual planned by the Nevada Chapter of the Travelers Protective Association, will finance the purchase of special equipment and supplies to directly benefit the children.

Everyone is invited to participate

RULE CHANGES FOR 1982 J&B

This year, the top rated sixteen players will meet on October 23 and 24 at the Desert Inn and Country Club to battle for the Tiffany trophy and the $50,000 first place prize. They will be playing in a double-elimination, match play framework.

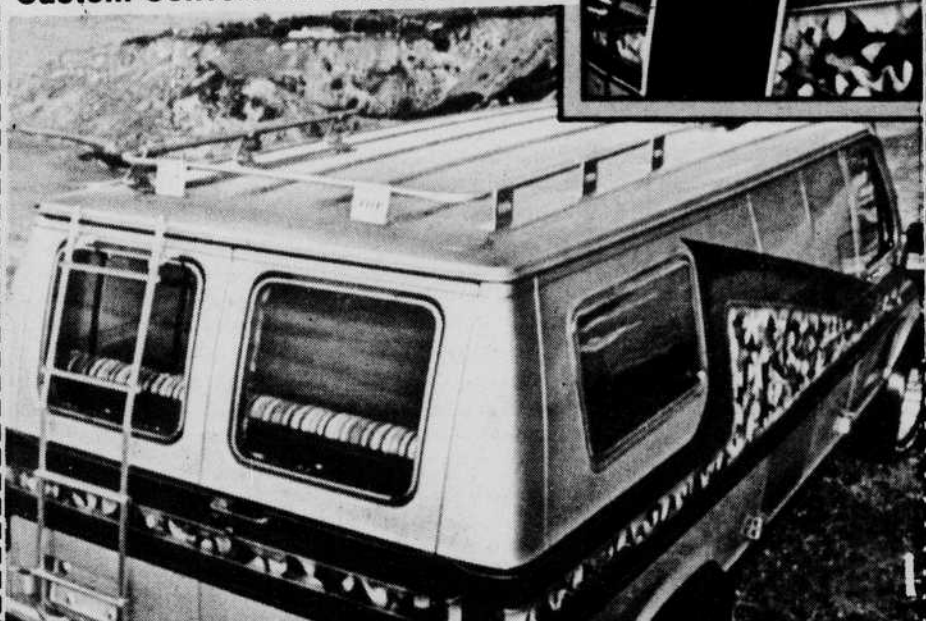

Two losses will cause their departure. Three wins will assure a place in the semi-finals. The new format, which differs from previous year's single elimination medal play, will offer an improved opportunity for the players to display the talent
