JACKSON STREET & ME . . .

by rudi jackson

Just before Hollow-een. And there will be Goblin Parties all over the city of The Meadows. And a whole lots of folks sho'nuff duz not be in need of no mask to put on to hide behind . . . tee hee hee hee. If the face fits then endeavor to wear it!

I heard thru the watermelon vine that Mr. E.T. (eddie j. taylor) was on a slow moving C.T. Bus headed back from RENO and was so tuckered out from the ride that was being rode. He asked the driver to let him off some 300 miles from Vegas. (He beat the bus back — WALKING). HOW EVER. SO BE IT. He went to the bus station and phone called his good round and the town buddy Obuddy Willie Reynolds to ask him to pick him up and give him a ride home . . . Why Cum, Huh? . . .

I seed a slew of pretty little cocktail waitresses out serving the patrons as I made my way to one or two sets over this pass week-end. Namely Sharron Green (once a model with the Sassy Fashion Revue) and lovely Anita Jones (both cocktailing at the Club Rouge), two other hip-swinging ladies were too busy waiting on the patrons I failed to get their names. BUT THEY WUZ LOOK-N-GOOOOOOOD as a BLACK ROSE.

Speaking of Black, Pretty black folks, I C'd the black rose of Las Vegas Nell Smith and Ex-dancer Cookie (both are ebony females with a lotpazzzzzzzz!) . . .

The Cocktail Waitresses Of The Week Are None Other Than: Mss Tena Evans (The New Town Tavern) and that coke bottle shaped Mss Coralis (of the newly decored JAZZ ROOM). Them two beeees Smok-in when they pass thru the people-folks with them nice-ly poured drinks in hand and not spilling a sip with each swang of the hip!

Understood that there is a new lady locked in the life of one Mr Eugene Brown (who serves up TUN at Love's Cocktail Lounge) Now it is Mr Eugene and Annette Brown (Happy Wedding Bells and Living in the days to come! . . .

Where is the self now that the Sassy Fashion Revue no longer is doing Revues in the city? Tell him the ladies miss his Midas Touch in Modeling . . .

Plus what is with the life style of Le'Von Siggall and her new born babby-o-few months ago (Rudi J misses all of the former modeling troupe!) But time is changing all things.

Happy Birthday to all Scorpio's! (Earline Winbush of Magic Curl Beauty Salon) you got a present coming in a few mo'days and a year older (Oh Yeah!) . . .

Speaking of beauty-up-the-head-people. Hats off to: Josephine Langford, Bennie Lewis, & Willie Owens from Mr Frank Austin who cares for the floors and good looks which are what their Continental Beauty Salon is all about . . .

MR. B.B. KING (the KING of THE BLUES) will be at The Space Center Room in The Hotel Sahara come November 22nd. Plan to catch the show cause he is very

The Black People In Our Community . .

By: Regina Straughter

Hello there, black people. Remember last week I told you about the First Annual Las Vegas Black Business Directory (1982-83). If you would like to order your copy send to Afro-American Cultural Services, P.O. Box 27176, Las Vegas, Nevada 89176. Dr Porter Troutman or his wife Bobbie will be more than happy to mail or hand deliver yours. $5.75 is the cost plus it includes postage and handling.

Last Friday I heard whispers that Gorman clinched the Number-1 Play-Off seed in overtime winning 17-14 out at a clash of the helmets in the Silver Bowl. Bishop Gorman High School's John Sullivans (2) booted a 22-yards field-goal in overtime which caused the Chaparal Cowboys to beat Bonanza 16 yard flea-flicker combination. And that is the way some of it was with the fellows of Gorman. Kings of the heap when it comes to moving a pig-skin.

Last week my Aunt Bobbie asked, "Regina, how did you know about the bookstore I have dreams of opening?" And I told her (smiles) I overheard her talking about it. Which all goes to show young people learn a lot just by listening and looking. Adults should be very careful in things they say and do, for the young always learn the habits and deeds set forth by the older ones, be it for the good or for the bad ways of life.
