Kwanzaa, or Our Black Holy Days, is observed from Dec. 6 through Jan. 1. The seven-day African American holiday celebrates what is called the seven principles of blackness.

A different principle is observed each day of the holiday. The principles are Umoja (unity),

Kujichagulia (self-determination), Ujima (collective work and responsibility), Ujamaa (cooperative economics), Nia (purpose), Kuumba (creativity), and Imani (faith).
