OBSERVATIONS

by CHARLES "POP" SQUIRES

COACHIE Sigmuller was a "good Indian," and was trusted by his white friends. His trouble was started by a small insect of some kind, probably a black widow spider, which bit George Lattimer on the arm causing that member to swell to twice its normal size and giving him great pain.

George and Bell Lattimer owned the Indian Springs Ranch forty-five miles northwest of Las Vegas, more than fifty years ago and befriended the good Indian boy, Coachie Sigmuller, by giving him food and letting him live with them and do chores around the ranch.

It was necessary to get George to civilization and help if his life was to be saved, so Bell harnessed the team and, after making George as near comfortable as possible on a bed of alfalfa hay in the back of the wagon, started for Las Vegas. After a wearisome journey over a rough trail, they reached Vegas on the morning of the second day where they took the evening train for Los Angeles and, "miracle of miracles," George's life was saved, but it was more than a week before they returned to the ranch.

In the meantime, Coachie was very proud of being left in full charge of the ranch, but he soon had troubles of his own. One morning he noticed a puff of dust far down the trail, and

A VERY FAMOUS PREDICTION

When Columbus returned from the New World and told Europe about the wonders of his voyage, many ponderous volumes were written on personal reactions. A man today landing on the moon would have the same importance and novelty as did the voyage of Columbus. One Priest warned his assembled mass that "This

On October 9th, the SISTERHOOD of the JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER, will present a fashion show in the Copa Room of the SANDS HOTEL. Seven local shops will show their latest fashions. Luncheon tickets are $3.50 each and the show will begin at 12:30 P.M. . . . The striking young lady on our front cover is CAROLE HOFFMAN. She is wearing the breathtaking fur shawl which WILLIAM BAER donated as the raffle prize (tickets on this beauty are just $1.00 each). The shawl is comprised of natural white Russian Ermine, with a Black Pearl Mink collar. It is valued at $1500 and the little lady who wins this will celebrate an early Christmas. . . . Chairman for this event is KAY WALLERSTEIN, one of the most persevering women to dedicate herself to charitable and civic enterprises. Fabulous salutes Mrs. Wallerstein for expending her every energy to help others. She is that "one in a million" . . . and that's for sure. . . .

Producer MONTE PROSER (of the TROPICANA HOTEL) has fantastic plans for the November 27th opening of EDIE ADAMS and friend husband, ERNIE KOVACS. . . .

Toward the end of October (or the beginning of November), remodeling will begin on the HACIENDA HOTEL. Plans call for the addition of 266 extra rooms, expansion of the Dining Room to seat twice the current capacity, enlargement of the Jewel Box Theatre, etc. It is virtually a complete face-lifting program, with the exception of the Casino. WARREN BAYLEY also plans to renovate the suites, turning them into efficiency apartments, with rentals open to localites at reasonable rates, which of course, include hotel service. . . .

On Saturday evening (last), TV viewers were actually thrilled with PERRY COMO'S rendition of "Kol Nidre." Although a devout Catholic, Perry greeted the highest of Jewish Holidays with this chant. Those who are qualified to judge, claim that no Kantor ever executed this chant with greater brilliance, or emotion. . . .

PARAMOUNT'S soon to be filmed, "St. Louis Blues" will star NAT (KING) COLE, EARTHA KITT, PEARL BAILEY, ELLA FITZGERALD and CAB CALLOWAY. Every day for the past week, rehearsals were held at the NEW FRONTIER HOTEL. During this time, Nat and Eartha familiarized themselves with the script. Now, on October 7th, the actual shooting will begin on the coast. Pearl will be appearing at the FLAMINGO HOTEL and Eartha will be at the HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS. That means that both of these performers will undoubtedly make daily flights to California, to record their scenes for the "Blues" flicker. Incidentally, RUBY DEE will portray Nat's love interest on celluloid. . . . ALAN REISNER is

THAT colorful Carnival Room in the FREMONT HOTEL is one of the "jumpiest" spots in all of Las Vegas! Showgoers there seem to favor the rock and roll style of musical entertainment and the Hotel has certainly seen to it that they get what they want. Currently headlining the attractions there are the frantic SATELLITES. This combo specializes in visual "rock and roll" and there couldn't be many groups any better at the job. Along about time for their first set it's all you can do to find a seat, and it stays that way until the early, early hours of the morning when the boys lay down their instruments and head out to accumulate a fresh store of energy. . . .

THE MAKE BELIEVES, featuring BEV MARSHALL, top the entertainment on the early evening shift in the same room, and this foursome present a delightful mixture of song and comedy built around one after another of the craziest records you've ever hear. BEV'S timing is flawless and her flair for comedy a pleasure to watch. . . . THE STARDUSTERS are another group of rock and rollers who alternate with THE MAKE BELIEVES and help set the blinding musical pace with vivid and bouncy arrangements of all the rock and roll favorites. . . . SYL GREGORY, WESTERNER CLUB Bar Manager, is taking a three-week vacation with his wife, PEGGY, and the two boys, CHICKIE and LOU. They'll spend some time at Lake Tahoe and then to SYL'S hometown of Sacramento to visit with family and friends. . . . Another vacationing "out-of-towner" is HARRY LAHR of the PIONEER CLUB. . . . If you are interested in collecting "miniatures," and this is a fast growing hobby with a large following, stop in MIKE'S LIQUOR STORE on South First Street and look over the selection offered by AL RIPPS. This is one of the finest collections of miniatures in Las Vegas and includes most of the "hard to get" brands. . . . JEANIE DALASSIS is the new day shift cocktail waitress at the WESTERNER, and a very lovely addition to the club she is! . . .

RICK WILLIAMS is back in town once again, having just returned from a very successful PRESS CLUB junket to San Francisco where members of the local "fourth estate" were hosted by the San Francisco Press Club. . . . When you're downtown and the sound of old fashioned "home-made style" beef stew sounds good,

NORM LITTLE, relief floor boss at the NEVADA CLUB, was really rushing around the other night checking off big payoffs during that club's double jackpot time. Poor guy was hustling so fast he scarcely had time to slow down long enough to say "hello." . . . While spending a few moments passing the time of day with Bar Manager SYL GREGORY in the WESTERNER CLUB, the senior "mixologist" at that popular spot called my attention to three new drinks now being served there that, because of the titles alone, are certain to cause more than mild curiosity. They are the "Orange Snapper"; "Green Devil" and "Purple Passion" and SYL says they are guaranteed to get results and to AT LEAST get you started. . . . THE DREAD Asiatic Flu has struck our strip talent, either lightly or seriously, and is a source of concern for even those not touched by it. Our advice is — see your doctor for those "shots." Your "Round The Town" is bedded with same, but hopes to see you in person again by publication time. . . . In the meanwhile . . . extend belated birthday congrats to lovely LYNETTE, wife of KEN KAPLAN of BEAUX ARTS BEAUTY SALON, who celebrated her (?) birthday on September 25th. . . . All you "hams" be sure to dot-dash congratulations to genial JOE BURESKI — call letters W7GZT—on being granted the coveted G.A.R.L. — "GENERAL AMATEUR RADIO LICENSE." No wonder he's all smiles at his job as daytime floor-man in the HACIENDA slot department. (We're mighty happy for you too, JOE.) . . .

BOB TIMM, slot department boss, spent three busy days in L. A. on top secret business for his HACIENDA. Can you let us in on it now, BOB? . . . LUCILLE HAILEY of LANZ DRESS SHOP has been a very busy, but happy, hostess. She's been entertaining daughter, ARLA, and her son-in-law, BILL BARRON, of Orange, Calif., and also doing the town with her sister GRACE McKELVY of Anaheim, Calif. Have fun gals! . . . GREG MOORE and DICKIE DE CLARK from St. Louis, Mo., are new FLV boosters. They are now waiters "at your service" in the plush Gourmet

Room of the elegant TROPICANA HOTEL. Welcome to our wonderful town boys. . . . That lovely red-head, RUCY WHITE, former change-girl at the RIVIERA was given a stork shower by twelve of her gal friends. Hubby, BILL, is a dealer at the GOLDEN GATE! Look for cigars some time this month fellas. . . . Stand by for a surprise announcement for his swing shift and graveyard workers from SY HUSNEY! . . .

How lucky can you be dept.: PAULINE HOGAN, check-room girl at the JOE W. BROWN HORSE-SHOE CLUB, had the first new Edsel in LV — got it two days before the show room opened. . . . Those swinging BACHELORS with the beautiful NANCY LEE are really tickled to be back by popular demand. All of their friends can stop in and say hello and enjoy the rhythms of this peppy group at the ROYAL NEVADA CABARET LOUNGE. . . . JO ANN JORDAN (spelled with an A, not an O), was sorely missed when illness (that ole' bug) and severe pain from "WRY" neck caused her to give in to doctor's orders to go to bed. . . . Your fans had "WRY" faces JO ANN. . . . No pain, just missed you muchly. . . .

ALBERTA HAMBLEN of the EL RANCHO GIFT SHOP is a busy gal these days. Since we mentioned the beautiful and original hand-knits that she whips up, ALBERTA wishes she could knit and purl more hours to a day. . . . Watch for great news coming from the LANZ SHOP, COLONIAL HOUSE area. It will prove

NOW THAT summer is nearing its end and I begin to think about returning to "civilization," and Las Vegas in particular, I had better get on the beam and get in some columns so that "ye editor" will at least be speaking to me when I arrive. One never knows what country living entails until one tries it. It seems I no more than get unpacked in the spring than here it is time again to pack up and get things ready for the winter. Besides ten sheep to worry about wintering, I have to dig all the vegetables, gather the muskmelons and tomatoes, plant more clover seed, get more brushing done and sort the things I want to take with me because I am a walking office come wintertime, and I literally live out of my suitcase and my car. And all this with proof-reading my eighth edition of HILLSWAY which is ready to go to press now!

The maples and sumacs have turned a brilliant red and the birches are starting to "yellow." The next three weeks here will be a riot of color and truly the nicest time of the year. Last Sunday I entertained at a family picnic in honor of my sister, Altie, and her husband, Harry Hutchinson, from Long Beach and that party was really staged under duress because the night before the Mora Country Club had a steak club put on by the men, and I was on the committee. I had washed dishes, waited on tables, and poured coffee from six p.m. until after midnight, and then had to be up bright and early Sunday, get myself into town to Mass and back in time to cook the dinner. Oh, for the life of a bachelor! Last Monday, Dr. Joseph Jorgens came up from Minneapolis and brought Steve Wells of the Wells Advertising Agency in Los Angeles. We spent the evening talking about plans being considered for a multi-million dollar clinic in Las Vegas, patterned after our own Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. I certainly hope this becomes a reality because I could think of nothing finer for Las Vegas than to have this. Every industrial firm in the country would be more than happy to send its executives once a year for a check-up, especially in-as-much as it is all deductible. Now they all have to go to Rochester, Boston or Baltimore where there is no entertainment or excitement for them while waiting for results of their tests. And, too, there isn't a specialist in the country that would turn down a two or three week's paid vacation in Las Vegas, and at the same time act as an examiner or consultant.

Daisy and Bob Gillespie visited me last week. I hope to get a column from her about their recent trip to Europe while attending the American Bar Association convention in London — she has some interesting things to tell about the garden party she attended at Buckingham Palace with Queen Elizabeth as hostess. Bob is one of Minnesota's most prominent attorneys and legislators. Yesterday also, J. McClure Kelly, multi-million dollar plumbing contractor of Minneapolis visited me. He still raves about the few days he and the Missus spent with me in Las Vegas last year, and especially about the dinner Chef Jack Collins served us at the Thunderbird where we heard the Winged Victory Chorus. He also remembers the tour Jack took us on, along with Glenn and Norma Hage, through the vast kitchens at the Bird. Neither Mrs. Kelly nor Norma Hage kick now when they have to get into their own kitchens and wash dishes while the TALKED to a visiting Bostonian the other night and during the course of the conversation, after being prodded somewhat by me, he consented to give me a rundown of the local shows he had seen which would probably be "banned" in that rather staid and straight-laced city. His opinion was a revelation, and I am certain it was candidly expressed to his best ability. As a result all I can say is Las Vegas would make the most luxurious "Girl Scout Camp" you ever saw if Boston censorship was ever introduced locally! He even mentioned that a few of the Lounge acts might come in for a "brain wash" in keeping with rigid New England standards. When I finally got around to inquiring the ultimate question as to whether he agreed wholly, or in part, with this philosophy, he replied unhesitatingly in the negative and affirmed a strong desire to locate in such a town as this where the judgment of risquieity is left entirely to the taste of the show-going public. . . .

THE BACHELORS and NANCY LEE are smack in the middle of a return engagement at the ROYAL NEVADA and are filling the popular Cabaret Lounge with the "sound" that everyone likes to hear. These artists excel in everything musical, but right now are specializing in combining the rock and roll and progressive vocalizing that has taken the nation by storm. . . . In the same Lounge PHYLLIS INEZ is doing a bang-up job mixing straight vocals; smart, sophisticated comedy lines and clever double entendre that is this wonderful showgal's stock in trade. Catch her in this spot — you'll have to agree she's the absolute "greatest." . . . Returning to the same location is bouncy BETTY REILLY who belts out terrific song-fare in five languages! For something really different catch Irish BETTY as she presents authentic Hebrew Classic or Spanish numbers in their native tongue. . . . Pretty JO ANN JORDAN, of the TRIO PLUS ONE bearing the same name, who are appearing in the Cabaret Lounge, was forced to take a few days off from her singing chores because of a painful neck ailment. Expect JO ANN will be back on the stand when this issue hits the stands and we certainly suggest you catch her excellent group. Top vocals, masterful instrumentals and just enough comedy and visual punch to put them across "REALLY BIG." . . . The RIVIERA'S Starlight Lounge has had several changes lately and the new line-up starting Wednesday, October 9th will have LENNY KENT and JACQUELINE FONTAINE headlining the proceedings — and what a pair of terrific entertainers these two are! Their countless stories and rapid-fire gags have everyone in a state of near hysterics from the moment they step into the spotlight. Here is a flashing mixture of swelling vocals and blushing comedy you cant afford to miss. . . . When you stroll past the Starlight Lounge and hear the strains of "When the Saint's Go Marching In" that's your cue to march in and catch the wonderful TAYLOR FOUR. These fellows have the whole Lounge clapping, shouting and stamping in accompaniment to this number and the effect is contagious. They — BUD-DY GREENE, FRANKIE BURG, KENNY SMITH and AL FIKE, together with their Manager, SAMMY TOOLE, own the Denver, Colorado hot spot, "TAYLOR'S SUPPER CLUB," and they are making one of their infrequent appearances outside maid is away.

Tomorrow I am giving myself a favorite annual treat — that of taking a trip up the north shore of Lake Superior, through the Superior National Forest (the world's largest national forest, and the last great wild area left in this country. There are 3000 lakes that one cannot get to except by canoe or plane), and thence across the Iron Range country and back via Duluth and the Wisconsin side. But now I must hurry to dress and get to town where I am invited for dinner as guest of honor at the Marcus Zetterberg home — you see it is in honor of my birthday, and they are serving all of my favorite foods, old-fashioned roast chicken, sage dressing, lefse, corn on the cob, and homemade ice cream. Life in the country certainly can be, and IS, beautiful!

become a repeat performer in the glittering entertainment capital of the world. . . . ROWAN and MARTIN are two solid comedy favorites in FLV and return once again to the scene of previous smash appearances with their completely uninhibited clowning and frantically funny routines. They fool you at first appearance on-stage as they enter dressed impeccably in beautiful tailored suits and then proceed to shatter your equilibrium with any sort of nonsense that pops into their heads. Your final reaction to these two zanies is to call for the man who provides such cases with the well-known "White Sportcoat" and no carnation! . . . THE VOGUES do a brilliant job of vocally backing up the special numbers created for MISS RUSSELL and for the production routines. . . . "The Most Beautiful Girls in the West," the dazzling COPA GIRLS, make both of the production numbers a gorgeous thing to behold. . . . ANTONIO MORELLI and His ORCHESTRA are the sturdy "sound" behind the show and they support the entire package with their tip top musical mastery.

delivery is excellent. Be sure to pay close attention to his story of the "man on the bus and the lady with the dog" — it is a comedy "gem" and he tells it beautifully. . . . On the same bill, and also playing FLV for the first time, is the famous "Champagne Goddess," TERE SHEEHAN. She brings a new, exciting and spectacular act built carefully around her curvesome loveliness. She is a "must see" on anyone's program of nightery entertainment. . . . Master of Ceremonies, GARR NELSON, captains this two week voyage and sings two beautiful selections in his appealing baritone voice. GARR also vocally introduces and backs the production scene piling the comedy deep and well. . . . Stunning TONY MOHR, exotic dancer par excellence, is a finished exponent of the bump and grind and an eye filling vision of loveliness from head to toe. . . . Vibrant songstress VICKI YOUNG sells the hit tunes of the day with renditions the way you like to hear them sung. . . . RENE THE PUPPETEER presents a very clever and highly imaginative routine of amazingly life-like and lovable little wooden characters loaded with compelling personality. . . . SPARKY KAYNE and MAC DENNISON give the show a strong comedy assist as they manuver in and out of laugh provoking comedy situations and Irish tenor and Emcee JIMMY CAVANAUGH sings the popular ballads of his native Ireland with warmth and sincere feeling. . . . The beautiful SLIPPERETTES carry off the imaginative production routines created by choreographer BARRY ASHTON to perfection. . . . All of the musical support of the show is capably provided by GEORGE REDMAN and His ORCHESTRA.

every known style of vocal interpretation. ELLA shines on the vibrant, swelling tunes associated with musical comedy production and has the rich, full tonal quality to present these numbers to their best advantage. She can then counter with modulated tones that caress the softer, lyrical romantic ballads of the day. You're bound to enjoy your evening with ELLA LOGAN. . . . Impressionist-Comedian DON TANNEN brings an entirely different and very appealing approach to the world of light-hearted comedy. He possesses a clever and distinctive style that belongs only to him and dispenses a wealth of fresh material that is guaranteed to capture your fancy. . . . GAYLE ROBBINS has again provided superb choreography and staging to capture all of the beauty and dancing prowess of the compelling THUNDERBIRD DANCERS as they execute two very fine production routines. . . . REX JOHNSON, Master of Ceremonies and production vocalist, is sure to impress everyone with his superb vocal quality and congenial showmanship. . . . Singing star JOHNNY DESMOND opens Monday, October 7th with Comedian SHELLEY BURMAN and THE BRUXELLOS.

This magnificent extravaganza is built around these two top performers and features big-time musical comedy production, all-new scenery, ten terrific original show tunes from the pen of GORDON "Manhattan Towers" JENKINS and a brilliant cast of outstanding supporting talent. . . . Glamorous VIVIAN BLAINE sings five of the all new show tunes which are skillfully woven into the production and is also featured in "show within a show" scenes that take full advantage of her overpowering talent and ability. she emerges as another great star on the Las Vegas horizon. . . . DICK SHAWN definitely has scaled a new high as he appears in specially created sequences that vividly frame his sparkling wit. Always a great monologue performer he now steps into his own as a clever musical-comedy personality besides. . . . Throughout the entire show are a series of colorful "musical vignettes" starring a tremendous array of high calibre singing and dancing talent. Featured in these capsule size musical gems are NEILE ADAMS; DANTE DE PAULO; MARY ELLEN; LEONA GAGE, "Miss U.S.A. for a Day"; dancer LIZANNE TRUAX; BOBBY MILANO; BETTY JEAN HANSEN; KITTY DOLAN and the bouncy BILL NORVAS SINGERS. . . . Each of the TROPICANA GIRLS is a major beauty contest winner and their collective beauty is impossible to describe. They complete the picture like loveliness of the exquisitely staged production numbers. . . . Maestro NAT BRANDWYNNE and His ORCHESTRA have mastered the difficult Broadway type musical score and their musicianship affords excellent support for the entire cast.

as he watched it the puff drew nearer and nearer. He saw that the moving object was a man and that he would have to stop at the ranch for water. Then, to his horror, he recognized that the man was Indian "Wild Bill."

Coachie was not on friendly terms with Wild Bill, who was of the overbearing, abusive type and who, in the past, had often cuffed Coachie around

After drinking his fill at the cool stream flowing from the spring, Wild Bill seated himself on the edge of the porch for a little rest before searching for food. Soon, due to his long walk in the hot sun, he was fast asleep. Coachie was a good Indian and knew his duty was protecting the property of the Lattimer's as they had placed him in charge. With this idea in mind, Coachie, who had remained out of sight, noiselessly crept into the kitchen and took the loaded rifle from behind the back door of the house, took careful aim at the sleeping form and did what he thought was his duty.

After making sure that Wild Bill was dead, Coachie hurriedly left for Moapa to his parents and proudly told of the good act he had performed. In due time officers of the law arrested Coachie and threw him into jail in Pioche. Then that fall, the District Court, Judge George S. Brown presiding, tried him for the murder of Wild Bill. He was convicted and sent to the State Prison at Carson City. Knowing that Coachie was a good Indian the sentence was not made too severe, and after serving about three years he was released to the custody of his tribe at Moapa. Coachie, the good Indian, had paid the penalty for his crime.

The story of Coachie Sigmuller was told to us by Judge Brown one night after Coachie had been released as we sat before our fireplace in our old home on Fremont street. He also told us of the funeral of Wild Bill whose remains were found on the porch of the Lattimer house when they returned to the ranch. It was necessary to shovel them into a gunny sack at once and bury them in a shallow grave on the hill about one hundred feet from the ranch house.

It has always been sort of a paradox to me that Queho, the bad Indian, should be able to starve himself to death after committing four vicious crimes, while Coachie Sigmuller, the good Indian, was sent to prison for what was really a good deed.

The final touches of this story were given to us by our friend, Emmett D. Boyle, who was state engineer under Governor Tasker L. Oddie and later became Governor himself. One evening Emmett drove up to the Indian Springs Ranch after a long hard day of driving over rough roads full of fine, white dust. He stopped near the pasture fence where he saw Bell Lattimer trying to corral some hogs that had escaped. As a good sized porker tried to pass her Bell made a dive and caught the hog by the hind leg, swung him about her head and sent him quealing over the fence. Then she turned to Emmett and asked him what he wanted. He replied that he would like something to eat and a place to sleep, and he was promptly and cordially invited into the house.

As Bell was serving dinner to her guest she suddenly got to her feet and stepped to the door, sniffed a few times, then siezed a shovel and started outside, remarking as she went "Them damned dogs has dug up Wild Bill again."

discovery of land across the sea means bloodshed, for this land will be found so rich that European nations will fight each other to gain possession. Spain will be the controlling language spoken, with English second and French a poor third!" This fantastic prediction came to pass, for more people speak Spanish in Mexico and all of South America than in North America, where English is spoken and French is a poor third in Canada. It came to pass!

YOUR WORLD OF TOMORROW

You can expect five great changes by this time next year!

- (1) Distribution of food and manufactured items simplified!
- (2) Greater care given the aged, infirm, and defective!
- (3) A bolder foreign policy on the gold standard basis!
- (4) Fantastic new inventions that will cut household drudgery at least 25%!
- (5) The greatest own-your-own-home movement in all recorded history where Uncle Sam will help every man and woman to own their own home and to pay it off like rent, with insurance and taxes included! Yes, we face an active, profitable five years ahead, with 1958 as the keystone of our coming prosperity and personal well being!

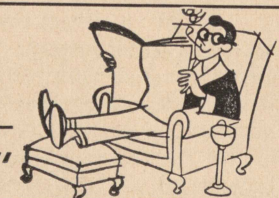

HUSH HUSH EVENTS

I predict a revolution in the world of entertainment! Major Hollywood film studios have lost millions on ordinary pictures with ordinary people and ordinary themes! Some of the independents found that special exploitation films would return the money more quickly and have greater popularity! Films costing less than $75,000 have outdrawn many super-movies with a four million budget! In the Music World it will be the same way. The major recording companies have lost thousands on some recordings only to have an independent firm like Prescott Records ("Lounge Stars of Fabulous Las Vegas") prove that the unbeaten path can be profitable and popular with all buyers of LP albums! I predict that Ed Donaldson and Stan Conrad with their Prescott Records will capture a new market!

FOR PEOPLE AND PLACES:

Mamie Eisenhower: Your next venture will be a spectacular tv and radio hour-long program where you personally conduct a tour for women through the White House. The President or no other man will appear, as this will be a program for women only! . . . in that spot, from point of service that is, and one of the very nicest.

Beautiful ELAINE SWAFFORD, long recognized as one of the most friendly and cordial cocktail waitresses in Las Vegas, has been induced to pose for high fashion photos from time to time. This popular FREMONT HOTEL gal proved after the first "sitting" that the choice was a wise one. She adds that necessary "something extra" that makes anything she models stand out with just a little more glamour than is normal. . . .

There are still many folks who remember the terrific baritone vocal work of JOHNNY O'BRIEN, now a top floor-man in the slot department at the GOLDEN NUGGET. JOHNNY only sings for pleasure now, but believe me if you are fortunate enough to catch one of his infrequent singing engagements, you'll think the pleasure is all yours! . . . Lovely JEANIE EBELL is a frequent "ring-sider" in the FREMONT HOTEL'S Carnival Room these days. Seems to miss very few of the frantic and entertaining sets by the popular SATEL-LITES.

KENNY MAPEL, PIONEER CLUB Floor Manager, has made the shift from swing to graveyard. . . . The current lineup in the GOLDEN NUGGET Showroom is one of the best balanced ever presented in that spot. Something for everybody and the attendance is proving it out. For novelty and Western tunes it's the great HANK PENNY and SUE THOMPSON, perennial favorites here; JIG ADAMS and His Band knock out the best jazz available for the "Dixie lovers" and FRANKIE MAYO and His NEW YORKERS really break loose with jumping music in the rock and roll vein. . . . Stop in the VEGAS VIC Cocktail Lounge anytime on the graveyard shift and you'll see why business is growing by leaps and bounds. Congenial Bartender CHARLIE GORGELOUS is the main reason. Here's a "Mixer" who delights in conversing on any subject and makes friends with everyone. An unbeatable combination! . . .

Our sincere sympathy and condolences are extended to PAUL WYERMAN of the FREMONT HOTEL whose wife, ANN, passed away several days ago. . . . We'll look for you between now and next week along the neon blazed trail of glamorous Fremont Street, the world's greatest gambling center.

of that bistro. Their background music is provided by the club organist, CLYDE ROGERS who made the trip with them. . . . Rounding out the entertainment fare in this spot are NICK ESPOSITO, THE FABULOUS McCLEVERTY'S and BOBBY PAGE with the WILDER BROTHERS opening this coming Wednesday. . . . The Stage Bar of the FLAMINGO HOTEL once again features LOUIS BELLSON and His QUINTETTE and their excellent program of synopated selections. . . . In the same spot are DAVE BURTON and THE BURTON BOYS and pianist REMARKABLE RUBIN who joins with the others to bring as outstanding a variety of top Lounge entertainment as can be found anywhere. . . . Watch for an all-new group of routines by DEBBIE HAYES and Her SIX MAD-MEN late this week or early next.

This is the bunch who became the talk of the town the moment they opened here a couple weeks ago. The new material is reputed to be even more startling, if that's possible. . . . JIMMY JETT and SHERRY MARTIN have departed for an engagement at the SADDLE and SIRLOIN in Tucson, Arizona and thence to Reno. After this busy series, watch for them to return to the Sinbad Lounge. . . . ART "Cow Eyes" ENGLER and His Combo, featuring ART is now appearing at the DUNES. For fine song stylings and music to "set the mood" we suggest you make a date with "Cow-Eyes" next time on the Strip. . . . The JODIMARS have gathered a completely new and sensational act including visual comedy, strong instrumentation and vocal sets and have expanded in size to a six man combo. They recently concluded a 6 Mos. successful stint at Harolds Club in Reno. The SEXTET open at the DUNES October 24th. . . . Watch for a soon to be released record album titled "Fantasies Espanolas" to be waxed by THE CABALLEROS. This marvelous Latin combo is featured in the Lady Luck Lounge of the DESERT INN and they really give an authentic South American twist to the stimulating music of South America. . . . Speaking of the DESERT INN, we stopped in to query our good friends LANNY SHORE and BUDDY GROVER, of the highly regarded GROVERSHORE TRIO, about the sale of PRESCOTT RECORDS' "Lounge Stars In Fabulous Las Vegas." This group is one of the featured combos and have several great selections on this record. According to latest reports, the work is gaining in popularity rapidly and requests for it as a souvenir of the "Entertainment Capitol of the World" are pouring in. Incidentally for a pleasant evening "out" be sure to treat yourself to the pleasing dance sets played by these fellows between showings of the spectacular DANCING WATERS each night by the D-I pool. . . . HAL BELFER was so pleased with the job done by THE MERRY MACS in their recent Stage Bar date that he has signed them for a long stint beginning December 19th. Looks like a sunny Christmas in FLV for this tremendous vocal aggregation! . . . Hope you'll be somewhere among the spectators this week and that we'll get a chance to exchange opinions on the "best" entertainment to be found anywhere.

THAT'S FOR SURE

Director of this history in music. . . . Aside to JACK SMITH, General Manager of the HOTEL EL CORTEZ. . . . We believe DAVE STREET would be a "natural" to entertain the crowds that head for your Celebrity Lounge, between the hours of 5:00 and 6:30 P.M. Being a bachelor, Dave has that certain appeal that reaches the feminine hearts. This lad's a charmer — for sure! . . .

We were really sorry to learn that DAN MERRIN had resigned from the FLAMINGO HOTEL. He had been General Manager and Assistant to President, AL PARVIN. Dan, himself, told us he has a deep sense of regret at having to leave all the wonderful employes of this bistro. This is one chap who will be missed. We sincerely hope he will find contentment and success in any endeavor he may pursue. . . .

DON LUCAS (dealer at the FREMONT HOTEL) has a set of vocal chords that can literally amaze you. He was part of show business not so long ago (a threat to Como). Kinda have a hunch that he'll give you a listen, if you coax him a bit. . . .

MARIE SEYMOUR, the "Girl with the Golden Arm," is back in FLV. She is a "game starter" at the DUNES HOTEL. Marie just returned from Canada where she sold her northern roots, in order to settle here. . . .

Over at the SANDS HOTEL, LOIS De ROCHE is a delightful young lady. Her parents arrived from Chicago, for a surprise visit. . . .

On October 21, the Milton Berle

Sincerest best wishes to a wonderful gal! BARBARA CRANE celebrated her natal day Sunday, September 29. Lovely "BABS" totes cocktails in the Crown Room of the ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL.

When you visit the SHOWBOAT HOTEL on the Boulder Highway, you can't help but notice the many improvements initiated by General Manager JOE KELLY and the resulting increase businesswise for this very popular spot. Genial JOE has surrounded himself with top, reliable and personable people and can easily boast one of the finest organizations of Hotel personnel in Las Vegas. The many customers staying there appreciate the courtesy and friendliness they find, and several have taken the time and trouble to forward personal letters commending both the personnel and the Hotel policy. No wonder Joe is proud of the terrific gang working down there and happy about the definite increase in business. . . .

Watch for another JACK SMITH first in FLV! This newest venture will be a full fledged ice-skating rink rumored to be located near the SADDLE CLUB at the junction of Fremont and Charleston Boulevard and the Boulder Highway. . . .

EL CORTEZ Publicity Man JACK KOGAN is back east on a "goodwill tour" for the Hotel, and will make several personal appearances on radio and teevee extolling the many virtues of this rapidly expanding organization. You can be sure JACK will call attention to the upcoming Pheasant Hunt and the widely acclaimed DICK TAYLOR, Manager of the HACIENDA HOTEL, and his lovely new bride are currently honeymooning in Honolulu. Hotel President, WARREN BAILEY, promised the young couple the trip with all expenses paid as a wedding gift when they were married. As soon as pressing Hotel business matters were cleared up, BAILEY, as good as his word, scooted the couple out of town and on their way to a blissful ten day holiday. How sweet is it! . . .

JOE W. BROWN is planning a new facade for his HORSESHOE CLUB, on Fremont Street. The amazing plans are currently being studied by J. W. and HARRY DORSETT. The change is due to surprise you. . . .

Following a siege of illness, JACKIE DICKINSON has returned to her post at H. B. BURNETT'S (at the RIVIERA HOTEL). . . .

We just knew that ASH RESNIK couldn't stay away from FLV, for very long. A week ago, following a visit here, he returned to his BOB OLIN'S RESTAURANT, in New York. Now, Ash is back again, registered at the HOTEL EL RANCHO VEGAS. He must be pretty much in love with the statuesque MARILYN JOHNSON, TROPICANA HOTEL lovely. . . .

FABULOUS extends a hand of welcome to the SANS SOUCI and sends sincere felicitations to MR. MITZEL and HAROLD HIND, partners in this venture. Opening of this latest center is due around October 15th. Many localites know Mr. Hind very well. He was Credit Manager of the LAST FRONTIER for many years and then at the HOTEL EL CORTEZ in same capacity and also a co-owner. . . .

The SAHARA CUP RACES are set to begin on October 13th. According to advance reservations received, this Third Annual Meet should make Universal history. (It made National headlines, last year!) . . .

Patrons of the HOTEL ROYAL NEVADA welcomed back BETTY RILEY and her group, recently returned from Hawaii as headliners in the Cabaret Room of the ROYAL NEVADA HOTEL. . . .

MARY HAYTIN is having a tremendous sale on all gold watches at her HOBE JEWELRY SHOP in the THUNDERBIRD HOTEL. Each band alone is worth the complete price quoted. If you have a special someone on your Xmas list, start your shopping — right now! . . .

RUBY KOLOD (of WILBUR CLARK'S DESERT INN) is busily engaged in the hectic preparations for daughter ELAINE'S wedding next week. . . .

From December 6th thru the 15th, the Chicago All Stars Competition will take place at the CHICAGO COLISEUM. We are indeed proud that localite JIM DESKIN will be among the keglers, vying for top honors. In case you didn't know, only fifty bowlers were selected for "Bowling's WHO'S WHO" and Jim was listed among them (out of the thousands upon thousands who follow the ten pin game). The first night and the finals will be telecast from Chicago, with seven states on the receiving end. At this writing (although plans are still uncertain), we hope that Jim Deskin will be wearing the colors of our FABULOUS L. V. MAGAZINE. No matter what sponsor or sponsors is on your shirt, J. D., we know our prayers will be with you — all the way! . . .

FRANK CURSOLI, wheel dealer at the TROPICANA HOTEL, is full of elation. His wife PEGGY finally learned how to swim. Frank is so delighted, he actually intends to present his spouse with a medal. . . .

It's S T O R K T I M E — any second, now, for the MURRAY POSINS. Our Attorney is so "expectant," he can hardly contain himself. . . .

CHESTER SIMMS, co-owner and Casino Manager of the FLAMINGO HOTEL, just returned from the East. His medics have supervised a careful diet and our friend will have to adjust to a more normal schedule. . . .

ANNE PETRICCIANI is in Reno, congratulating her sister on the birth of her first child, a girl. Meanwhile, hubby SIL (of the FREMONT HOTEL) is boasting proudly of their two youngsters. JOHN is a Sophomore at an eastern College and Silvia is a Freshman at U.C.L.A. To hear Sil rave, you wouldn't think there was another teen-ager in this wide, wide world. Can't blame the guy! We know exactly how we feel about our own little image. . . .

Never met a happier person than JOHNNY ACUFF. BOB RICE (Casino General Manager at the DUNES HOTEL) was instrumental in placing John in the same bistro as day shift boss. Mr. Acuff, a "top" Casino employee, is so appreciative he can't stop praising Bob, and all of his fellow workers. . . .

HARRY GOLDENBERG is in charge of the BEVERLY HILLS reservations office for the SANDS HOTEL. He is situated directly in the BEVERLY WILSHIRE HOTEL. Harry is such a cooperative chap. He will make all necessary reservations for anyone who plans to stay in FLV — that includes show times, et al! . . .

A steady listening treat is APRIL AMES, the girl with the beautiful voice at the TROPICANA HOTEL. Hubby is AL BELLO, on the drums and he is mighty proud. Al, by the way, is considered one of the top bongo artists in the country. . . .

J. BAB were married at the office of the Justice of the Peace, September 24th. They are honeymooning in Salt Lake City. The groom is with IMPORT MOTORS. . . .

It was with deep regret we noted the closed doors of the BONNIE BEST DRESS SALON. No one forced the move! Bonnie just closed shop, of her own accord. Bonnie's name has been synonymous with leading fashions for years and we sincerely hope this is a temporary action. . . .

GEORGE CAPRI took leave of the FLAMINGO HOTEL for a highly deserved vacation — six weeks (lucky stiff!). He left for the East — naturally — where he will take in the World Series. From there — who knows? . . .

After working with NICK KELLY for ten years (New York's COPA and here at the SANDS HOTEL), EMILE MICHEL left his employ to take over complete food operations at the SANS SOUCI. It was an expected move for Emile is the son-in-law of MR. MITZEL (co-owner of the Sans Souci). Mr. Mitzel couldn't have made a wiser choice! . . .

MICHEL, owner of the DUNES HOTEL BEAUTY SALON, flies into L. A. weekly, to see his Dreamboat — INA RAY HUTTON. He has made the trip so often, we don't think Michel needs a plane anymore. He has his love to transport him to happiness. . . .

FABULOUS congratulations to STAN and SY SCHWARTZ who will open their new SCHWARTZ BROS. MEN'S STORE (303 Fremont St.), October 7th. The boys will even serve cocktails, come 8:00 P.M., that day. . .

CONNIE ROBERTS, constant companion to VIVIAN BLAINE, possesses a tremendous talent of her own. While at the TROPICANA HOTEL, she has been approached by many who desire to see her return to show business. From all indications, she just might do that! (It sure would be the show goes gain!) . . .

We know that orch. leader LOU BASIL will be missed. After a solid two years at the FLAMINGO HOTEL, Lou has left for the East. His first stop is the WALDORF-ASTORIA, where he will conduct for ANNA MARIA ALBERGHETTI's opening there, the last week in October. Mr. Basil is a top musician and is one of the finest in the field. . . .

On October 1st, JOEY BISHOP reported to WARNER BROTHERS, for work in, "Onion Head," in which he has a featured role. Joey will be on location for five weeks. Not too long ago, he completed, "Deep Six," a thriller starring ALAN LADD and WILLIAM BENDIX. . . .

MONIQUE de MONTIGNY is designing all of the new, fantastic costumes ("get-away") for DEBORAH HAYES, starring in the Sinbad Lounge at the DUNES HOTEL, with her group. Darn clever this Monique, "the Mad Hatter" of FLV. . . .

To the many fans who have inquired as to her whereabouts SHIRLEY PETERING is now a cocktail waitress at the TROPICANA HOTEL (graveyard shift). She was formerly at the DESERT INN. . . .

That's life! . . . AUDREY WILSON

(waitress at the FLAMINGO HOTEL) took a three month leave of absence in order to undergo surgery. After a week back on the job, the poor lass contracted Asiatic Flu. You can imagine what her thoughts are, just about now. . . .

Current birthdays: October 6th — SHIRLEY BABICH — BERNIE ROTHKOPF — PETE BOMMARITO — October 7th is the Fifth Anniversary of the TED LEWIS' — October 9th is the Fifth Birthday of JEFF FAYMAN. FABULOUS congratulations to each and every one of you. May your respective celebrations prove momentous events that will live long in your memory . . . and that's for sure.

both of these nice to know people — The lovely and charming SOPHIE ROSENTHAL, mother of the equally charming RUTH BERLE. Wonderful "Uncle" MILTIE considers himself twice blessed with these lovely ladies. SOPHIE is a real trouper who refuses to be bedded down even though suffering a severely sprained ankle. No torn ligaments will keep her down, says she. Bravo, fair lady. . . . We were delighted to learn that a temporary residence will be a permanent one now, so Mr. Census taker, add four more people to our list of FLV boosters. BOB and GERALDINE COX and their two children are the latest "stayer-oners." BOB is the wise and level headed personal manager of those rocketing SPARKLETONES, headed by JOE BENNET. BOB says he'll use LV as his home base. Glad to have you here. . . .

EDDIE GOMEZ, "MR. DOMINGO", whose group pleases nightly at EL RANCHO, is an actor also. Look for him soon with ROD CAMERON in "State Trooper," a TV series filmed in Nevada and L.V. EDDIE is a "heavy" in this one and we understand he is very good. . . . "RED" MEANY, popular Bar Manager and originator of that delicious Irish Coffee at the ROYAL NEVADA, will soon be greeting his host of friends at the new SAN SOUCI HOTEL. He will be sorely missed at the RN and the SS has gained a valuable localite. Congrats and good luck "Red." . . . Did you see the ED SULLIVAN SHOW last Sunday? If you didn't you missed eight beauteous TROPICANA dancing gals guesting for ED. Among them were KATHY WAKEFIELD and, SHEILA SULLIVAN (No relation), with whom ED did some extra kibitzing. These gals have been close friends since high school and college days and are now saving their money to go to Paris in April. To the Lido, perhaps? Anyway, good luck in New York and Paris, you blond lovelies. . . .

Pretty BOBBIE ALLAN, she of the pleasing voice, is now treating the ears and eyes of the SANDS' Lounge. BOBBIE could trade on her family name, but she prefers to succeed on her own, and succeed she will if appearances on TV with NAT "KING" COLE, as a member of the fine JERRY GRAFF SINGERS, indicate. BOBBIE is supported by the fine music of TOMMY DOYLE. . . . DEBBIE HAYES, the blondeyful gal with the MADMEN (DUNES), celebrated her 21st birthday on October 27 — belated greetings and many happy returns. . . . Received a nice note from SYD LEWIS of LEWIS AND SANCHEZ, America's most dynamic musical duo. They've just completed a most successful engagement at Lake Arrowhead and are now appearing at LA RONDE RUE in Long Beach, Calif. Hello and best wishes fellas. . . .

. . . Glad to have had you on this "ghosted" trip "Round The Town." . . . See you all next week when I hope to be back on my feet with the Dr.'s help K.O.'ing that foreign flu bug. . . . 'Til then —30—
