Biographical Note

Lorenzo Romans (1875-1965) was born in Iowa. His family moved to Los Angeles, California when he was very young and he spent the majority of his life in that city, working primarily in real estate. In 1894, Romans was hired to escort a client to the Las Vegas valley to purchase land; while in the valley, he stayed as a guest of Helen Stewart at the Las Vegas Rancho. After his retirement, Romans moved permanently to Las Vegas in 1950. He died in 1965 and was buried in Glendale, California.

Scope and Contents Note

The Lorenzo Romans Papers (1875-1965), consist of a Victorian-era photograph album of family photos, a diary with inserted photographs, a birthday date book, photographs taken in Los Angeles, California from the 1900s to the 1940s, a diploma from the Los Angeles Business College, postcards, greeting cards, and newspaper clippings, including a biographical sketch written by Frances Lee Cahlan that describes Romans' first visit to the Las Vegas valley in 1894.

While the majority of the collection is unrelated to Nevada it does provide insight into the daily life of the era, and the album of nineteenth-century photographs and early-twentieth century prints offer research and teaching opportunities.
