Organizational History

The mission of the International Center for Responsible Gaming (ICRG) is to help individuals and families affected by gambling disorder and to prevent the onset of gambling problems through high quality scientific research and evidence-based educational programming on gambling disorder and responsible gambling. Since 1996, the ICRG have provided independent, peer-reviewed research. The organization's work impacts public policy, strengthens responsible gambling, and improves the health and well-being of the people and communities affected by the continued growth of the gambling industry.
