Biographical Note

Harold Stocker was a significant figure in Nevada business and politics for over five decades. After helping his family operate the Northern Club in Las Vegas, Nevada, he operated the Nevada Silica Sand Company in Overton, Nevada from 1932 to 1940. In 1938, he started construction on the Chief Hotel Court on Fremont Street in Las Vegas. In 1948, he started construction on the Desert

Plaza Apartments, the largest apartment complex in Nevada at the time. Stocker was also an active member of the Republican Party; he served as county commissioner for one term while operating the Silica Sand Company, and he served as state chairman of the party in the 1950s.

Harold Stocker's parents Oscar Stocker and Mayme Virginia Clifton were married in Reading, Pennsylvania on December 26, 1891. Oscar Stocker, who was born on April 1, 1872 in Easton, Pennsylvania, was employed by the railroad. Mayme, who had worked at a silk mill in Philipsburg, New Jersey, was born in Reading on September 5, 1875. The Stockers' three sons were all born in Reading: Lester Stocker, November 16, 1892; Clarence Stocker, April 10, 1894; and Harold Stocker, March 8, 1900.

The Stocker family left Reading in 1904 and settled in Las Vegas, Nevada in October 1911. Mayme opened the Northern Club in 1920 after her sons became unemployed as a result of a railroad strike. She became the first recipient of a gaming license after Governor Fred Balzar signed the bill legalizing gaming in 1931. Oscar Stocker's name could not appear on the license because he was a railroad employee. The Stockers' sons operated the club until the Great Depression forced its closure. They continued to operate the hotel and leased out the first floor.

Harold Stocker's brothers Lester and Clarence Stocker were charter members of the Las Vegas Elks Lodge. Lester Stocker died in Las Vegas on December 17, 1934, and Clarence Stocker died June 5, 1951. Their father, Oscar, a thirty-nine year member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, died September 10, 1941.

Mayme Stocker was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the Royal Neighbors, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and other organizations in the Las Vegas area. Mayme Stocker died December 12, 1972.

Harold Stocker supported the University of Nevada, Las Vegas by donating his personal and professional papers to the University Libraries. He also established the Harold J. and Mayme V. Stocker Foundation to provide scholarships to engineering and chemistry students who graduated high school in Clark County.

Stocker died January 9, 1983 in Las Vegas.
